THE ULTIMATE SOLUTION FOR ALL YOUR DATA CHALLENGES.

Whether you require a solution for your data privacy needs, legal data processing, or investigations capabilities, Nuix Neo is a highly customizable, solution-based platform and designed to meet your unique data challenges – from collection, analysis, review to production.

From chaos to clarity.

Conquer more than 1000 different file types of messy unstructured data, processed by the functionality of the indomitable Nuix Engine to create searchable assets that can generate deep insights for your organization.

AI to empower you.

The AI in Nuix Neo contextualizes the data, and language models that are specifically tuned to your use-case to help you isolate what you need, improving accuracy and reducing the amount of data and time you need to review and analyze.

Move up the value chain.

With our automated workflow templates and advanced AI, you can reduce manual effort and accelerate your data analysis and review. Spend more time on critical tasks and less time on repetitive processes.

WHO WOULD BENEFIT FROM THE NUIX NEO PLATFORM?

Powered by the patented Nuix engine, Nuix Neo has been designed to help organizations across industries, to enhance their data analysis, investigations, risk & compliance, and fraud prevention efforts. This includes teams who are responsible for:

- > Data Privacy – the platform’s AI capabilities gives you the forensic depth and defensibility to quickly identify the value and risk of your data. Giving you the intelligence required to monitor and protect your organization, your customers, and meet risk and compliance obligations.
- > Legal Data Processing – regardless of the size or complexity, the platform gives you the power to streamline processes to quickly uncover crucial information, spot notable case trends, speed up and enhance the legal decision-making process, and save legal costs.
- > Investigations – rapidly ingest data from all relevant data sources and apply an array of collaborative investigative techniques through single pane of glass - to help you connect the dots between digital evidence and human behaviors.

Whether you are from a large corporation, government agency, legal firm, or financial institution, the Nuix Neo platform empowers data analysts, investigators, legal and compliance teams, data privacy and data protection officers to leverage AI technology as a force for good.
