

NUIX NEO LEGAL

Rise to the challenge of maximizing your legal processes with automation, intelligent insights, and collaboration. Nuix Neo Legal provides end-to-end eDiscovery from one trusted vendor, enabling you to process vast quantities of data in record time. Experience faster, easier, and smarter eDiscovery with Nuix Neo Legal.

Increasingly complex legal and regulatory requirements, coupled with increasing data volumes and a scarcity of expertise is forcing organizations, legal departments, law firms and legal service providers to search for new ways to reduce manual work, and increase time for litigation and strategic counsel.

Mitigating risk, managing costs, remaining compliant and finding ways to reduce the sheer volume of data for review, without missing key evidence is critical.

The proliferation of data has swamped the eDiscovery process demanding more time, budget, resources, and skills. Retaining oversight and control over litigation-related data, conducting early case assessment, improving information governance, and controlling costs are all top of mind.

Nuix Neo Legal's patented processing saves valuable time and resources by eliminating irrelevant data upfront. On average, across 50,000 cases, Nuix Neo Legal's advanced data reduction capabilities have reduced data by 64%, reducing wastage in the review stage – saving review time and hosting costs. Incorporating industry leading review capabilities, Nuix Neo Legal offers a full end-to-end eDiscovery experience.

Nuix's powerful AI classifies, contextualizes, and increases the accuracy of data, while advanced data reduction capabilities ensure only the most critical information is promoted to review. Share expertise with automated workflows and collaborate seamlessly, leveraging insights from a single view to fast-track eDiscovery.
